WELCOME to your archaeology passport.
First, you need to write down who you are and pick a field name. Your field name is what other archaeologists will call you when you are working together, so choose carefully!

MAKE YOUR OWN LANGUAGE

Not all languages use letters, some use pictures or hieroglyphs instead of letters. Create your own language by using pictures instead of letters then write a secret message!

Write your secret message here!

MENDING CERAMICS

You are digging and find a pile of broken ceramics! You take the pieces back to the lab and see some of the pieces fit together. Using cross mending (fitting together pieces of an object) you find that some pieces are missing. Use the pattern on the ceramic as a guide to draw in the missing pattern and then color it in!

WHAT DOES AN ARCHAEOLOGIST DO? DO'S AND DON'TS

Do

Obtain permission before digging.

Take artifacts back to the lab to analyze.

Studies humans.

Use science!

Get to work all over the world!

Don't

Dig for dinosaurs (that is a Paleontologist).

Sell artifacts we find.

Keep the artifacts we find.

DRAW AN ARTIFACT

Find an artifact and draw a picture of it here

DESIGN YOUR OWN POT

Decorate your pot!
